EXERCISE WORK

(comprehension passage)

Read about the festival of Bihu.

Bihu is the most popular festival in Assam and is celebrated to honour the importance of agriculture in people's lives. The people celebrate three types of Bihu every year- Bohaag Bihu, Kati Bihu, Magh Bihu.

Bohaag Bihu is celebrated in the month of Bohaag (middle of April) and marks the beginning of the seeding time. It is celebrated over several days. Traditional folk songs and dances are the main attraction of this festival.

Kati Bihu is celebrated in the middle of October, when people perform silent prayers by lightning earthen lamps in fields. It is the time when farmers are hoping for a good produce.

Magh Bihu indicates the end of the harvesting period. It is celebrated in the middle of January. It is the festival of feasting. Women prepare traditional sweets which are shared with friends, neighbours and relatives. People enjoy singing and dancing throughout the night and light bonfires.
