SECTION A(READING)

1. Once Mrs. Lion told Mr. Lion to brush his teeth as his mouth smelt very bad. Mr. Lion could not tolerate such an insult. He was very upset. He called a sheep and said, "Is my mouth smelling very bad?" The innocent sheep told the truth. "Yes, Sir, you have a bad breath," Mr. Lion roared angrily and killed the sheep. Then Mr. Lion called a wolf and asked him the same question. The wolf had secretly seen how the sheep was killed just in a few minutes ago, So he thought to tell a lie. "Sir, your breath is as fresh as flowers."

Mr. Lion understood that the wolf was telling a lie. So, he killed the wolf. Then he called a fox and said, "Tell me quickly, how does my breath smell?" The fox had seen the fate of both sheep and the wolf who chose to speak the truth and lie. So, the clever fox said, Sir, "I have a very bad cough and cold. My nose is blocked. I can't smell anything at all". Mr. Lion let the fox go.
