DAY HAD DAWNED COLD AND GRAY

When the man turned aside from the main Yukon trail. He climbed the / [1/4] high earth-bank where a little. – Travelled trail led east through the pine forest.
It was a / high bank, and he paused to brea the at the top. He excused the act [1/2] to himself by / looking at his watch. It was nine O' clock in the morning. There [3/4] was no sun or promise of / sun, although there was not a cloud in the sky. It [1] was a clear day. However, / there seemad to be an indescribable darkness [1 1/4] over the face of things. That was because the sun was absent / from the sky. [1 1/2]
This face did not worry the man. He was not alarmed by the lack of / sun. [1 3/4]
It had been days since he had seen the sun. The man looked along the way be // [2] had come. The Yukon lay of mile wide and hidden under three feet of Ice. On top of / this ice were as many feet of snow. It was all pure white. North and [2 1/4] South, as / far as DP Jack London 64 his eye could see, it was unbroken [2 1/2] white. The one / thing that relieved the whiteness was a thin dark line that [2 3/4] curved from the pine.

Covered is land to the // South. It curved into the north, where it [3] disappeared behind another pine - covered Island. This / dark line was the trail - [3 1/4] the main trail. It led South 500 miles to the chilcott pass, / and salt water, It led [3 1/2] north 75 miles to Dawson, and still farther on to the north a / thousand mills to [3 3/4] Nulato, and finally to St. Michael, on being sea a thousand miles and half // a [4] thousand more. But all this the distant trail, no sun in the sky, the great cold /, and [4 1/4] the strangeness of it all - had no effect on the man. It was not because he / was [4 1/2] long familiar with it. He was a new comer in the land, and this was his / first [4 3/4] winter. The trouble with him was that he was not able to imagine. He was quick and // ready in the things of life, but only in the things, and not in their [5] meaning. Fifty / degrees below zero meant 80 degrees of frost. Such facts to Id [5¼] him that it was cold and uncomfortable /, and that was all. It did not lead him to [5½] consider his weaknesses as a creature affected by / temperature. Nor did he [5¾] think about man's general weakness, able to live only within narrow limits of heat // and cold. From there, it did not lead him to thought of heaven and the [6] meaning of a / man's life. 50 degrees below zero meant a bite of frost that hurt [6¼] and that must be guarded against / by the use of mittens, ear coverings, warm [6½] moccasins, and thicks. 50 degrees below zero was / to him nothing more than [6¾] 50 degrees below zero.

That was a thought that never entered his head. // [7]
